KIDS MAKING CHANGE—A PENNIES FOR PIGS DRIVE

Great for Elementary, Junior, and High School Students
High School Students may find ideas in the Campus Packet relevant as well

What is a Pennies for Pigs Drive?

It is a school wide fundraiser where students donate their spare change to purchase pigs (and other animals) for a Haitian family in need. In Haiti, owning a pig is like having a "living bank account." They are easy to care for, provide a valuable source of protein, and a valuable form of income from the sale of the pigs' offspring.

STEP BY STEP

1. Get your school involved.

- Work with your teachers and principle to get other classes involved. Ideally, make it a school-wide contest!

2. Set GOALS.

- Make individual classroom goals and a larger school-wide goal.

- Students can work to raise enough to purchase a pig, while schools can work together to purchase an ENTIRE Lambi Fund Farm (with a pair of pigs, goats, sheep, and more going to a deserving Haitian community in need)

Look at Lambi's gift catalog for more ideas: http://lambifund.org/support_catalog.htm

3. Make posters and set up Piggy Banks.

- Place piggy banks all throughout the school and in classrooms encouraging students to give their spare change to children just like them in Haiti
 - Get creative! Create pig noses to wear around school to show you are a participant of the pig drive

4. Download Videos and Photos of the Lambi Fund to Show at your School.
